Supervisors support Fontana's Child Protection Fair

SAN BERNARDINO – The Board of Supervisors on Tuesday approved a $2,000 allocation to support the Fontana Police Department's 16th annual "Kids Count" Child Protection Fair.

"The fair is a great opportunity for young people to learn how to stay healthy and safe, and it also provides a positive environment for them to meet and talk with the law enforcement officers who serve their community," said Chairman Paul Biane, who requested the funding along with Fifth District Supervisor Josie Gonzales.

The "Kids County" Child Protection Fair will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 22 in the Fontana Police Department parking lot located at 17005 Upland Ave. The event will feature free health screenings and immunizations as well as entertainment and educational activities for youth.

Residents can call the Police Department at (909) 350-7740 for more information about the event.
